

Berkeley Castle Covid 19 - Tenant Update # 26 - September 6, 2020

Hot off the Press: Commercial Rent Relief Program to be re-vamped.

“Exclusive” to The Globe and Mail

There is no concrete information yet available, but below is the link to the article in yesterday’s report on business. What we do know, is that the current program will be re-vamped and extended beyond August 31/2020.

TIFF 2020: September 10 – 19

Join us Friday at 6pm for a digital film screening in the courtyard.

Please RSVP as numbers will be limited.

TIFF has given us the AOK for a big screen digital viewing in the courtyard.

Bring a blanket or lawn chair to sit on and dress warmly.

No Ordinary Man:

An in-depth look at the life of musician Billy Tipton

No Ordinary Man is a Canadian documentary film, directed by Aisling Chin-Yee and Chase Joynt and written by Aisling Chin-Yee and Amos Mac. The film is a portrait of Billy Tipton, the influential jazz musician who was revealed after his death to have been transgender.

TIFF is learning how to switch it up. There will be socially distanced indoor screenings, drive-in movies, outdoor experiences and digital opportunities. If you have another TIFF film you’d like to see in the courtyard, message me, and I’ll try to set that up as well.

... On Thursday evening, with patience, we’re going to set things up, and make sure we have it all working with a viewing of Enemies of the State.

Together, let’s limit the spread of COVID-19 and prevent future outbreaks.
