

Berkeley Castle Covid 19 - Tenant Update #30 - October 7, 2020

Additional face protection

With COVID numbers skyrocketing, we all need to do what we can to protect ourselves and others. Though our staff most often work in isolation, we are asking them to double up on protection when in contact with tenants and visitors to the building. This is to keep you, and them safe.

Additional financial help for tenants

I was holding off on this e-news, as I was hoping for an announcement from the federal government on the new Covid-19 aid program to subsidize rent for businesses. Right now, all I can do is quote Finance Minister Chrystia Freeland: “We will have more to announce very soon”. This article contains as much up to date information about what the program will be about as I could find.
